

Cambridge A.I.C.E. Program Application

Dear Student and Parents/Guardians,

Thank you very much for your interest in the Cambridge program at Sarasota School of Arts + Sciences. The Cambridge curriculum consists of rigorous preuniversity courses that emphasize higher order thinking skills, including writing, problem solving, collaboration, and enquiry skills. We encourage highly motivated students who excel academically to apply to this program. Admission to the Cambridge program will be based upon a review of the following criteria:

- 1) Middle school core academic grades and/or grade point average
- 2) Middle school curriculum/courses taken
- 3) Advanced scores on relevant Florida Standards Assessments (FSA) standardized tests
Students will need scores of 4 or 5 for full acceptance
Students may earn a conditional acceptance with scores of 3 and above
- 4) Attendance and discipline records
- 5) Students do not have to be enrolled in the Cambridge AICE Academy to take Cambridge classes.

If you wish to apply for admission to the Cambridge program, please complete and return the enclosed application no later than April 6, 2018. Applications received after April 6, 2018 will be considered on a rolling admissions basis.

All Cambridge applicants need to request Advanced Language Arts, Advanced Civics/History, and Spanish I (8th grade) or Intermediate Spanish (7th grade). For rising 8th grade students, the required elective is Cambridge IGCSE Global Perspectives.

Please return your application packet to: Sarasota School
